

Classic Homes is Looking for a Few Good Agents!

- Classic Homes is the largest independently owned real estate company in the Coachella Valley.
- We offer the highest commission split of any full service office.
- There are no franchise fees or desk fees.
- After the first year, agents are permitted to buy or sell a personal residence once a year with no commission to the company.
- Errors and omissions insurance is charged per transaction, with no agent deductible.
- Architecturally significant, centrally located office with attractive client meeting rooms and covered parking.
- Full time management and support staff.
- Graphic designer available to help with your advertising and marketing needs at no cost to you.
- Excellent computer support with both wired and wireless Internet access.
- Transaction coordinator service available.
- Corporate website in place and updated regularly.
- Optional floor time available.
- Support staff goes the extra mile for you.
- Friendly, supportive, experienced and fun agents.